

Trains, Trains and More Trains

Crossword Puzzle

Words Used In This Puzzle

- | | | | | | | |
|-----------|----------|------------|--------------|---------|--------|--------|
| ballast | diner | gravel | passenger | roof | strobe | wheels |
| brake | engineer | load | polar | sand | ties | |
| container | express | local | railroad | sidings | train | |
| depot | freight | locomotive | right of way | steel | train | |
| diesel | gate | operation | roadbed | stop | trains | |

Provided by Trains, Trains and More Trains Show
 April 26 & 27, 2008, Puyallup, WA
 More info at www.tmtshow.com

See you there! Lots of family fun and entertainment!

Puzzle Clues

Across:

- The name of the metal box used to hold materials on a double stack car
- The sections of track of the main line where trains can be passed
- Trains that go directly from the starting place to their destination without in-between stops
- The name of the area where track is placed
- The kind of train that people pay to ride in
- The _____ is used to stop the train
- The name for the crushed rock used as ballast around track
- A train that does not travel long distance is said to be a _____
- What runs on railroad tracks (plural)
- The kind of flashing headlamp used in modern trains
- The general name for the material that is hauled in boxcars, tanks or flatcars
- The title for the person who “drives” the train
- The parts of the train that touch the tracks
- When people are going to get on a train, the train must _____
- There are 2 general categories of trains: passenger & _____
- The name of the part of the train that the engineer is in
- The name for the wood or concrete pieces that track is fastened to
- The fuel that modern locomotives run on
- The name for the top of a passenger car

Down:

- What locomotives use to get traction when their wheels slip
- A description of the arctic. Also the title of a recent movie with a train as a main character: _____ Express
- The term for the running of trains is train _____ (also what a surgeon does)
- The name of a locomotive with at least several rail cars behind
- When a car is at a railroad crossing and a train is approaching, the trains has the _____ around the track
- The railroad term for the gravel used around the track in the roadbed (hint: see #11 across)
- People get from one city to another by rail in a passenger _____
- A safety program to teach car drivers to wait if a train is near the crossing is Operation _____
- The metal that rails are made of
- The name of a company that owns and operates trains (examples: Union Pacific or Burlington Northern Santa Fe)
- The name of the train car where people eat meals
- Another name for a train station
- The “arm” that blocks a crossing when a train is coming is called a crossing _____

© 2008 by Susan Evans

Provided by Trains, Trains and More Trains Show
April 26 & 27, 2008, Puyallup, WA
More info at www.ttmshow.com

See you there! Lots of family fun and entertainment!